

Extreme Team Player Recruitment Contest Details

$5,000 in prizes!!!

Contest is open to all PPD members, coordinators and/or players at large. Cash prizes are as follows:

- 1st - $3,000 – to the recruiter with the most eligible new players.
- 2nd - $1,000 – to the recruiter with the 2nd most eligible new players.
- 3rd - $1,000 – to the recruiter with the 3rd most eligible new players.

An eligible new player is defined as: Players are considered “new” if they are not on the current or preceding All-Star rank list. Player’s match night’s count from May 1st, 2015 through last match played on August 31st, 2015. Prizes will be sent via PayPal to email addresses on file within player accounts on September 1, 2015.

A new player will appear on the “New Player / Recruiter Roster” as soon as they’ve played a match and have been processed for a new player id assignment (generally one week). New players will be on the roster once they’ve completed 50% of their league games in any one league, which means that they could be on the roster for one week but not for the 2nd week and so on, until they’ve achieved the 50% minimum matches played.

New players, once they’ve been issued their unique player id, must create their player account and fill out their player profile. Once established, new players will then be able to identify their “recruiter” inside their player accounts. If a “recruiter” is not on the list of available people, please check to make sure that the recruiter also has their player account completed.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Once a recruiter is selected, the choice will remain as is and cannot be undone. Please be very careful and make sure you are selecting the correct recruiter.
